

Stomate - pores in leaves that can open and close.

- more on the bottom

- not a cell

↳ Regulates the amount of water passing through a plant.

Crispy - open → lets water pass through

Wilted - closed → preventing water loss

Xylem - tube-like structures that carry water from the roots throughout the plant